GOSPEL and EPISTLE READINGS

EPISTLE READING

The reading is from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 8:8-13; 9:1-2

Brethren, food will not commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. Only take care lest this liberty of yours somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if any one sees you, a man of knowledge, at table in an idol's temple, might he not be encouraged, if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols? And so by your knowledge this weak man is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died. Thus, sinning against your brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of my brother's falling, I will never eat meat, lest I cause my brother to fall.

Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not you my workmanship in the Lord? If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

GOSPEL READING

The Gospel According to Matthew 25:31-46

The Lord said, "When the Son of man comes in his glory and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will place the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me.' And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

The Greek Orthodox Church of the Ascension

St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival

Friday, March 25, 2022

Students in grades 3 through 12 are invited to participate in the St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival on Friday, March 25, 2022 at 7:30 pm in Ascension Church.

Students are to prepare a speech/response that answers one of the questions found in the attached guidelines and present it to the community.

Speeches/Responses need to be typed and submitted to the Parish Chairperson by March 20, 2022, in order to assist the student in putting the final touches on their entry. Entries can be emailed to pinoustacy@hotmail.com

Length of Presentation:

Elementary Division (Grades 3 -6) should prepare a response between 30 seconds and 90 seconds.

Junior Division (Grades 7-9) should prepare a response between 3 and 4 minutes.

Senior Division (Grades 10-12) should prepare a response between 4 and 5 minutes.

There are many benefits in participating in such an event:

1. It is a great opportunity for your child to build public speaking skills in a safe, supportive environment while applying their religious knowledge and beliefs.
2. Our current and former participants have noted this event on their college resumes which has resulted in curiosity from colleges and recommendations to participate in leadership activities.

All participants will receive a certificate and gift for their participation.

Feel free to contact Stacy Pinou at pinoustacy@hotmail.com with questions and concerns. Those who are interested in participating should let me know as early as possible. I will conduct writing workshops for all interested.

Sincerely,
Stacy Pinou-Melizanis
Oratorical festival Chairwoman

ST JOHN CHRYSOSTOM ORATORICAL FESTIVAL 2022 Topics

Junior Division (Grades 7-9)

Topic 1

Share what you learned about yourself after a “technology fast” of at least 21 days. What can we learn about our relationship to God and the world by fasting?

Topic 2

In our personal prayer and liturgy, we usually make requests of God. Discuss why we make these petitions and how God fulfills them.

Topic 3

Choose a saint whose life has been important to you or your family. Discuss what you find most inspiring about this saint and what others can learn from how they lived their life.

Topic 4

Discuss how you would share your Orthodox Christian faith with a visitor to your parish.

Topic 5

Discuss your favorite Church service of the year and why it is meaningful to you.

Senior Division (Grades 10-12)

Topic 1

Discuss the significance of Orthodox iconography (historically, symbolically and/or artistically) and how icons enhance our worship.

Topic 2

From the earliest days, Christian worship has been community-based, not only solitary, and Christians formed communities where the members learned from and took care of one another. Why is it important to be part of a Church community, and how is this relevant today?

Topic 3

The Orthodox faithful pray to the saints for physical healing and we have examples of saints like Cosmas and Damian who were doctors. What does this teach us about the Orthodox perspective on faith, health, and medicine?

Topic 4

Discuss ways that a young person can respond to God's call to love God with heart, soul, mind, and strength and one's neighbor as oneself (see Luke 10:27).

Topic 5

In every Church service, we pray for "peace in the world," usually many times. Yet, war and violence persist. What is the Orthodox Christian approach to war and violence?

Awards will be presented at the NJ Greek Independence Day reception on March 19, 2022.

~ 2022 Scholarship Essay ~

Background: Personal treasures and unique artifacts often provide us with memories of the past that help us maintain a connection to our history and culture. Whether a piece of art or an item of sentimental and family value, they can bring a smile to our face or tears to our eyes while filling our hearts with love and appreciation for the people and experiences that preceded us. For the same reasons, global discussions have expanded to include the return of cultural artifacts and historical treasures to their country of origin.

Essay Question: Should cultural treasures, which are a source of national pride, historical legacy and cultural and religious identity, be returned to their country of origin? Examples of such treasures may include the Parthenon Marbles, artwork stolen by Nazi Germany, or artifacts maintained in private collections throughout the world.

Submit your response of less than 1,000 words before February 28, 2022

How to Prepare for Pascha

"... every year the church gives us an incredible opportunity to refocus our lives on Christ through fasting, more prayer, more alms giving, more services in the church as we prepare to celebrate the Lord's glorious resurrection on Easter... those three weeks leading up to the beginning of Great Lent itself are called the Triodion... God is always there, always ready to lift us out of the darkness, to lift us back into the light and into life, everlasting..."
